

Geography themed itinerary:

Human Geography

- Land Use
- Intensive Agriculture
- Settlement Patterns

Physical Geography

- Rock Formation
- Volcanicity
- Erosion/Weathering
- River Processes

Sample content covered :

Intensive Agriculture

- Rice farming as a primary industry
- Be led through the stages in which rice is grown.
- Understanding how land is prepared, to ensure good crop growth.
- Transplanting of crops, seed establishment, broadcasting of seeds, harvesting
- Role of human in managing the changing environment
- Examine the causes and extent of pollution and measures taken to reduce pollution
- Evaluating West Sumatra's approaches towards environmental protection.

Volcanicity

- Case study of living with Volcanoes in Indonesia
- Explore volcanoes and fold mountains and develop an understanding on why the locals chose to expose themselves to higher risk by staying in volcanic filled region.
- Evaluate the costs and benefits of living in the volcanic areas of Indonesia

Global Adventure Consultants Pte Ltd

Tourism

- Tourism in West Sumatra and how it has been affected by government policies

River Studies

- Explore concept of stream dynamics
- Describing processes related to erosion and deposition
- Hands on activities : Measuring cross-sectional area of river, its velocity, flow, discharge and bed load.

Culture

- Learn about the uniqueness of the Minangkabau Culture, the role of Man and Woman in society

For more details on the above programme, please contact Clare at (65) 81395207 or email us at globe.adventure@gmail.com. Website : www.globe-adventure.com
We would be happy to tailor make an itinerary to suit your needs.

